

GETTING READY FOR THE GREAT EVENT

North Carolina Masons Preparing for Laying Corner-Stone of Temple.

HEAVY RAILS BEING LAID

Seaboard Air Line Complying With Corporation Commission's Order.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] RALEIGH, N. C., October 14.—Grand Master Francis D. Winston, of the North Carolina Grand Lodge of Masons, arrived this morning from his home at Windsor, and will devote the next two days to seeing to it that everything is gotten in readiness for the ceremonies that are to characterize the laying of the corner-stone for the grand lodge temple, which takes place Wednesday. It develops that Hon. James G. Richardson, head of the Masonic fraternity in America, cannot attend neither will Senator John W. Daniel, of Virginia, be able to accept the invitation that was extended to him. Under these conditions the principal address for the corner-stone ceremonies will be by Grand Master Winston and General W. R. Cox, of Edgecombe, the latter being chairman of the building committee for the temple.

Putting Down Heavy Rails.

The Seaboard Air Line Railroad makes a report to the Corporation Commission to the effect that during September twenty miles of seventy-pound rails were placed on the Carolina Central, between Hamlet and Wilmington, to take the place of the lighter rails ordered replaced with the heavier rails by the commission some time ago, and that during the three months previous thirty-five miles of the heavy rails were put down, making fifty-five miles of new standard track.

The Wilmington-Hamlet Road is 110 miles, and a large force of hands are working regularly on the new track.

Charters Granted.

Charters were issued to-day for three new corporations: the Hiwassee Lumber and Manufacturing Company, of Murphy, capital, $10,000 authorized, and $2,000 subscribed, by A. G. Deweesen, J. W. Ford and O. P. Ward; the Blue Ridge Lumber Company, of Apalachia, Cherokee county, capital, $10,000, by George Osborne, J. E. Osborne and J. M. Brown; the Roanoke Fibre Board Company, of Roanoke Rapids, capital, $125,000 authorized, and $30,000 subscribed, by Howard A. Edwards, Joseph H. Wallace and others.

Milton Hall, a sixteen-year-old negro train hand, on the Norfolk and Southern, was run over and fatally crushed by the train on which he was serving Saturday night three miles from Raleigh. He died of the injuries early Sunday morning. He fell in some unaccountable way from the car steps under the wheels of the moving train.

GIVE OVATION TO BRYAN.

Welcomed to Charlotte by Enthusiastic Crowd—Speaks at Night.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CHARLOTTE, N. C., October 14.—William Jennings Bryan was given an ovation here to-day. He was met at the depot by several hundred Charlotte citizens and was the central figure in a civic and military street parade. This afternoon he was the guest of honor at a public reception held at the Hotel Selwyn, and several thousand persons called to pay their respects. Governor Glenn, who is also a guest of the city, tendered him a welcome to the State.

To-night Mr. Bryan formally opened the new auditorium, under the auspices of the fall festival, delivering his lecture on "The Average Man." Fully 5,000 persons heard him, and gave him enthusiastic applause. Special musical features filled out the balance of the program. Mr. Bryan spent the night at the Selwyn, and early to-morrow morning will be escorted to Fayetteville by a special committee of prominent citizens, who journeyed to hear him. He will be the chief attraction there of the Cumberland County Fair.

Richmond Man Loses Money.

CINCINNATI, O., October 14.—A report has been made to the local police that Archie McKay, of Richmond, had $103 taken

Tonic Time To-Day

Time to invigorate your appearance with a spic-and-span Suit or Topcoat—$12.50 to $30.

Time to creep into thicker Underwear to keep the "creeps" from your spine—50c to $2.50.

Time to be newly shod and shirted. Shoes, $3 to $5. Shirts, $1 to $2.50.

Time to be freshly hatted and cravatted. Autumn Derbies, $2.50 to $5. Autumn Scarfs, 25c to $1.50.

Time to buy is NOW.

Jacobs & Levy

from the pocket of his pants Saturday night while he was asleep in his boarding-house. Another man at the house who saw Mr. McKay take his money out is suspected.

FOR A STATE NORMAL.

Norfolk Committee Working to Secure the Exposition Auditorium.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NORFOLK, VA., October 14.—Norfolk City School Board now desires the exposition auditorium and its two wings, and a few acres of land surrounding, as a home for the proposed Tidewater State Normal School, and a committee composed of Messrs. E. S. Ruffin, N. B. Grooms, R. A. Doble, W. M. Jones and Dr. E. T. Baird has been appointed, the object of which is to provide a way to secure the property. The auditorium is thought to be more desirable for the purposes of a normal school than the Virginia State and other buildings mentioned last week. An effort will be made at once to interest the city councils and boards of county supervisors in Tidewater, as well as the people generally, in the normal school movement as well as the securing of the auditorium.

TO CONTINUE "YELLOW JACKET."

Randolph-Macon Publication to Be Issued Again.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] ASHLAND, VA., October 14.—A joint session of the Franklin and Washington Literary Societies of Randolph-Macon College it was decided almost unanimously to continue the publication of "Yellow Jacket," which is the year book of the college. Last year's number was a great success, owing to the excellent efforts of capable editing and business staffs. Randolph-Macon is to have two intercollegiate debates this year. As yet final arrangements have not been made with the colleges interested. The two teams that will represent the college are W. W. Barnhart and C. L. Yancy, and D. S. Townsend and E. D. Helweg. These men are working hard to complete their plans at an early date.

SAVED THE STARVING CREW.

Captain Bell Finds the Lenora and Her Crew in Bad Way.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NORFOLK, VA., October 14.—Dis-masted and ten miles off Thimble Light in the Chesapeake Bay was the condition in which the tugboat Lenora was found on Sunday by Captain W. T. Bell, commanding the oyster schooner W. E. James.

Assistance was rendered the half-starved crew of the tugboat by Captain Bell, and his schooner towed the disabled boat to a haven. It is probable that the crew would have been lost had not help come when it did.

FOOT GUARD AS GUESTS.

Military from Hartford, Conn., Entertained in Roanoke.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] ROANOKE, VA., October 14.—The first company of the Connecticut Foot Guard, of Hartford, Conn., arrived here this afternoon, and were guests of the Chamber of Commerce and Norfolk and Western Railway until they left at midnight for Jamestown. The company, 150 strong, officers and men, under command of Major Louis R.

OFFICERS OF N. C. FAIR WHICH OPENS AT RALEIGH TO-DAY

E. L. DRAUGHTBRIDGE, Rocky Mount, President North Carolina State Fair.
ALBERT L. COX, Raleigh, Chief Marshal of the Fair.
JOSEPH E. ROGERS, Raleigh, Secretary.
CLAUDE B. DENISON, Treasurer and Assistant Secretary.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] RALEIGH, N. C., October 14.—The North Carolina State Fair, which opens here to-morrow, promises to eclipse any in the history of the State. There have been busy scenes at the grounds to-day, and the city is filling up with visitors from various sections of the State. Governor Glenn will make an address at the opening to-morrow.

Cheney, were met at Buchanan by the committee of reception.

Arriving here they gave a dress drill, followed by a parade through the principal streets of the city, lunch at the Elks' Home and to-night the visitors were banqueted at the Hotel Roanoke. President L. E. Johnson was toastmaster. R. H. Angel, president of the Chamber of Commerce, welcomed the visitors. Lucian Cooke spoke on "Virginia." James P. Woods on the "Old and New South." Major Cheney replied to the addresses of welcome, and Captain Wilcox and other visitors made brief speeches.

INDICTMENTS IN STAUNTON.

Five Prisoners in Jail Charged With Robbing Others.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] STAUNTON, VA., October 14.—The grand jury to-day in the City Court returned indictments against three white men and two negroes for robbing others. They are John Robertson, Sam Mills and Clarence Johnson, white, and Lewis Carter and James Cross, negroes. Ed. Champ, a negro, was indicted for attempting to assault Miss Lillian Kaiser, a pretty girl, at the Eastgate Hotel. Champ was the head waiter. Charles Brown, a negro, was indicted for housebreaking.

GIVE CHIEFS OYSTER ROAST.

Norfolk's Fire Chief Entertains Visitors in Royal Way.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NORFOLK, VA., October 14.—Fire Chief Keegan to-day had as his guests about 150 fire chiefs from all parts of the country at a delightful oyster roast at Cape Henry. Chief Keegan had special cars to carry the visiting firemen to the Cape. The chiefs came here to visit the Jamestown Exposition from the annual convention of the International Association of Fire Engineers, which was held last week in Washington, D. C.

NORFOLK SOON TO HAVE A LARGE APARTMENT HOUSE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., October 14.—Ground is to be broken to-morrow for the erection of a large four-story apartment house at the corner of Colonial and Regent streets. The building, which is to have sixteen apartments, will be completed about February 1908. It is to be of brick and will cost $50,000.

Mr. Wilmer, who was fifty-two years of age, was the son of the late Bishop Wilmer, of Louisiana, and was educated at the Rev. W. H. Darby, rector of St. Ann's Parish. The remains reached Charlottesville at 7 o'clock this evening, and were sent on the night train to Baltimore for interment beside his parents and brother, Skipper Wilmer, a prominent Baltimore lawyer.

Mr. Wilmer was a student from 1872 to 1874. Mr. Wilmer had been practicing law for about twenty-five years in New York City, and had obtained an enviable position, not only as a lawyer, but as a man whose public spirit incited him to take part in everything that tended to improve education and purify municipal government.

Mr. Wilmer is survived by a brother, Mr. Joseph Wilmer, of Rapidan, and a sister, Mrs. Edward C. Venable, of Petersburg, both of whom were at his bedside when the end came.

MR. WM. WILMER DIES AT PLAINDEALING

Well-Known Lawyer Passes Away at Virginia Home After Long Illness.

FRIEND OF THE PRESIDENT

Was Held in High Regard by Mr. Roosevelt—Burial in Baltimore To-Day.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., October 14.—Mr. William M. Wilmer, of the law firm of Canfield & Wilmer, New York, and intimate friend of President Roosevelt, died at 6:45 o'clock this morning at his Virginia estate, "Plaindealing," eighteen miles south of Charlottesville.

Mr. Wilmer had been in failing health for the past year, and during the summer went for a trip abroad, accompanied by his brother, Mr. Joseph Wilmer. Feeling little benefited by his outing, he came South to Johns Hopkins Hospital, where he made a brief stay. Two weeks ago he reached "Plaindealing," and was so ill he had to be taken from the train in a stretcher. Despite the best of medical skill, he grew worse rapidly, and the end was not unexpected.

A brief funeral service was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from Christ Episcopal Church, near "Plaindealing," conducted by the Rev. W. H. Darby, rector of St. Ann's Parish. The remains reached Charlottesville at 7 o'clock this evening, and were sent on the night train to Baltimore for interment beside his parents and brother, Skipper Wilmer, a prominent Baltimore lawyer.

Mr. Wilmer was a student from 1872 to 1874. Mr. Wilmer had been practicing law for about twenty-five years in New York City, and had obtained an enviable position, not only as a lawyer, but as a man whose public spirit incited him to take part in everything that tended to improve education and purify municipal government.

Mr. Wilmer is survived by a brother, Mr. Joseph Wilmer, of Rapidan, and a sister, Mrs. Edward C. Venable, of Petersburg, both of whom were at his bedside when the end came.

OBITUARY.

Adam Schmidt.

Mr. Adam Schmidt, one of the best known German citizens of Richmond, died at his home, No. 2414 East Broad Street, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Mr. Schmidt was born at Dornum, Germany, January 10, 1838. He came to the United States when quite a boy, and was engaged in the confectionery and cigar business in this city. In 1871 he joined Company F, now Company No. 1, of the Richmond Fire Department, and served actively up to four years ago, when he was retired on account of ill health.

Mr. Schmidt served through the Civil War as a member of the Rockbridge Artillery, and was wounded several times. He was also a member of Schiller Lodge of Odd Fellows, Germania, No. 1, and Saint John's German Brotherhood, of Richmond. He was a member of the German Baptist Church, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Emig, of Baltimore Md. His wife, who was Miss Emma Deichman, died some years ago.

The funeral will be held from the residence of his son, Mr. J. Henry Schmidt, No. 2414 East Broad Street, to-morrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The interment will be made in Oakwood.

Mrs. Martha Hawkins. Mrs. Martha Hawkins died at her residence, No. 2910 East Broad Street, yesterday morning at 8 o'clock. In the seventy-fifth year of her age, her death was the result of a long illness. Mrs. Hawkins has long been a resident of this city, and was a member of Broadview Memorial Baptist Church. She is survived by two daughters and one son. Her husband died about three months ago.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Wesley Vernon Sharpe. Mr. Wesley Vernon Sharpe, son of the late John Turner and Mary Fleming Sharpe, died of typhoid fever at the Memorial Hospital Sunday, in the twenty-fourth year of his age.

Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

Mrs. Catherine Chapman Pannell.

WINCHESTER, VA., October 14.—Mrs. Catherine Chapman Pannell died to-day at her home in Frederick county, after several days' illness of heart disease, aged seventy-three years, leaving four sons and one daughter. Her husband, William Pannell, died about eight months ago.

Dr. Horace A. Brooks.

BALTIMORE, MD., October 14.—Dr. Horace A. Brooks, one of the best-known of the older newspaper men of Maryland, died Saturday night in his home, Alandale, near Kearsale, in Westmoreland county, Va., of heart and stomach trouble brought on by rheumatism, from which he had been a great sufferer a number of years.

Dr. Brooks was born in Baltimore sixty-six years ago, and was a son of Professor Nathan C. Brooks, president of the old Baltimore Female College, a noted school in its day, and later of the Baltimore City College. Soon after Dr. Brooks completed his course in medicine the Confederate War broke out, and although but twenty years old, he joined the Confederate side, notwithstanding his father was a strong Union man. His course in this respect was probably due largely to the fact that he was much in love with a Virginia girl, Miss Hallie C. Browne, of Potomac, a beautiful estate on the Potomac. In Westmoreland county, whom he afterward married. She had been a pupil in his father's school. He soon became a captain in the Confederate service. He also saw considerable service in the Confederate army, and although he was in the hospital in and around Richmond. After the war he married Miss Brown and acquired considerable property interests in Westmoreland, where he went to live.

Dr. Brooks returned to Baltimore a few years later and became a member of the Sun's staff in the seventies. He was a man of great versatility and his newspaper work covered every department.

NEWS OF BOYDTON.

Ex-Congressman Thorpe Sells His Home—Tobacco Market Brisk.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BOYDTON, VA., October 14.—Ex-Congressman R. H. Thorpe, of Norfolk, has sold his late residence in this place to Mr. Howard Seales, who is sheriff-elect of Mecklenburg. The residence, which has been the handsomest in the town, Real estate has increased in value a good deal in the residential section.

The tobacco market has opened briskly, and prices are said to be fully sustained, as compared with other markets.

Messrs. B. E. Cogbill, H. B. Coleman and the Rev. J. A. Winn, who went to Vermont to select to the remains of the late ex-treasurer, George N. Wells, returned home last night.

CAROLINE COURT.

Several Indictments Returned, But No Cases Tried.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BOWLING GREEN, VA., October 14.—The regular term of the Circuit Court of Caroline County has opened with Hon. John E. Mason presiding. The chancery docket was called and a number of decrees entered. Owing to the Deaths.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] JACKSON—Sabbath. WINCHESTER, VA., October 14.—Mr. Omar E. Jackson, wife of the late Winchester contractor, and Miss Clara Virginia Seabright, daughter of Chief of Police Stewart A. Seabright, were married to-day at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. E. E. Northern, of the Baptist Church. They are spending their honeymoon with Baltimore friends during home-coming week.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BOWLING GREEN, VA., October 14.—The Democratic County Committee met to-day and reorganized. C. B. Coyway was again elected chairman, and J. B. Washington secretary. A resolution was passed by the committee calling on all Democrats to support the nominees of the party. Mr. E. B. Collins has announced himself a candidate for sheriff, in opposition to Mr. T. B. Gill, the nominee.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] JACKSON—Sabbath. WINCHESTER, VA., October 14.—Mr. Omar E. Jackson, wife of the late Winchester contractor, and Miss Clara Virginia Seabright, daughter of Chief of Police Stewart A. Seabright, were married to-day at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. E. E. Northern, of the Baptist Church. They are spending their honeymoon with Baltimore friends during home-coming week.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BOWLING GREEN, VA., October 14.—The Democratic County Committee met to-day and reorganized. C. B. Coyway was again elected chairman, and J. B. Washington secretary. A resolution was passed by the committee calling on all Democrats to support the nominees of the party. Mr. E. B. Collins has announced himself a candidate for sheriff, in opposition to Mr. T. B. Gill, the nominee.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] JACKSON—Sabbath. WINCHESTER, VA., October 14.—Mr. Omar E. Jackson, wife of the late Winchester contractor, and Miss Clara Virginia Seabright, daughter of Chief of Police Stewart A. Seabright, were married to-day at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. E. E. Northern, of the Baptist Church. They are spending their honeymoon with Baltimore friends during home-coming week.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BOWLING GREEN, VA., October 14.—The Democratic County Committee met to-day and reorganized. C. B. Coyway was again elected chairman, and J. B. Washington secretary. A resolution was passed by the committee calling on all Democrats to support the nominees of the party. Mr. E. B. Collins has announced himself a candidate for sheriff, in opposition to Mr. T. B. Gill, the nominee.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] JACKSON—Sabbath. WINCHESTER, VA., October 14.—Mr. Omar E. Jackson, wife of the late Winchester contractor, and Miss Clara Virginia Seabright, daughter of Chief of Police Stewart A. Seabright, were married to-day at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. E. E. Northern, of the Baptist Church. They are spending their honeymoon with Baltimore friends during home-coming week.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BOWLING GREEN, VA., October 14.—The Democratic County Committee met to-day and reorganized. C. B. Coyway was again elected chairman, and J. B. Washington secretary. A resolution was passed by the committee calling on all Democrats to support the nominees of the party. Mr. E. B. Collins has announced himself a candidate for sheriff, in opposition to Mr. T. B. Gill, the nominee.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] JACKSON—Sabbath. WINCHESTER, VA., October 14.—Mr. Omar E. Jackson, wife of the late Winchester contractor, and Miss Clara Virginia Seabright, daughter of Chief of Police Stewart A. Seabright, were married to-day at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. E. E. Northern, of the Baptist Church. They are spending their honeymoon with Baltimore friends during home-coming week.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BOWLING GREEN, VA., October 14.—The Democratic County Committee met to-day and reorganized. C. B. Coyway was again elected chairman, and J. B. Washington secretary. A resolution was passed by the committee calling on all Democrats to support the nominees of the party. Mr. E. B. Collins has announced himself a candidate for sheriff, in opposition to Mr. T. B. Gill, the nominee.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] JACKSON—Sabbath. WINCHESTER, VA., October 14.—Mr. Omar E. Jackson, wife of the late Winchester contractor, and Miss Clara Virginia Seabright, daughter of Chief of Police Stewart A. Seabright, were married to-day at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. E. E. Northern, of the Baptist Church. They are spending their honeymoon with Baltimore friends during home-coming week.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BOWLING GREEN, VA., October 14.—The Democratic County Committee met to-day and reorganized. C. B. Coyway was again elected chairman, and J. B. Washington secretary. A resolution was passed by the committee calling on all Democrats to support the nominees of the party. Mr. E. B. Collins has announced himself a candidate for sheriff, in opposition to Mr. T. B. Gill, the nominee.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] JACKSON—Sabbath. WINCHESTER, VA., October 14.—Mr. Omar E. Jackson, wife of the late Winchester contractor, and Miss Clara Virginia Seabright, daughter of Chief of Police Stewart A. Seabright, were married to-day at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. E. E. Northern, of the Baptist Church. They are spending their honeymoon with Baltimore friends during home-coming week.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BOWLING GREEN, VA., October 14.—The Democratic County Committee met to-day and reorganized. C. B. Coyway was again elected chairman, and J. B. Washington secretary. A resolution was passed by the committee calling on all Democrats to support the nominees of the party. Mr. E. B. Collins has announced himself a candidate for sheriff, in opposition to Mr. T. B. Gill, the nominee.

The Implement Co.

1302 E. Main Street, RICHMOND, VIRGINIA.

The Richmond Agents for AMERICAN STEEL AND WIRE FENCING, FARGUHAN ENGINES AND SAWMILL, WESTINGHOUSE GASOLINE ENGINES, and the best makes of all

Farm Implements.

Call and see us or write for our catalogues and prices.

No. 4.

Cold and Grippe Cure

CURES COLD, GRIPPE, NEURALGIA AND HEADACHE—25c.

Wm. P. Poythress Co.,

Richmond, Va.

absence of Mr. A. B. Chandler, who is in Baltimore at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, under treatment, none of the criminal cases will be tried at this term. Mr. Chandler being counsel in the

The grand jury met and brought in an indictment against Clarence Brooks for cutting Lillie T. Tavey, and an indictment against Mortimer Morton for non-support of wife.

HAVE GOOD STAFF FOR THE UNIVERSITY MAGAZINE

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., October 14.—The University of Virginia Magazine, which ranks among the best college monthlies published in this country, has the following staff for the ensuing six months: Leon Rutledge Whipple, of St. Louis, Mo., editor-in-chief; associate editors—John Jennings Luck, of Roanoke, Va.; James Cook Bardin, of Charlottesville; William Oscar Ryburn, of Potomac, Va.; Randolph Fitzhugh, of Richmond, Va.; Business manager, Charles Francis Cooke, of Roanoke, Va.; treasurer, John Trevilian Wingo, of Richmond, Va.

The magazine, the first issue of which will appear to-morrow, will be conducted under the financial guarantee of the Linden Kent Memorial School of English Literature.

CAROLINE DEMOCRATS.

County Committee Organizes and Urges Veterans to Support Nominees. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BOWLING GREEN, VA., October 14.—The Democratic County Committee met to-day and reorganized. C. B. Coyway was again elected chairman, and J. B. Washington secretary. A resolution was passed by the committee calling on all Democrats to support the nominees of the party. Mr. E. B. Collins has announced himself a candidate for sheriff, in opposition to Mr. T. B. Gill, the nominee.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] JACKSON—Sabbath. WINCHESTER, VA., October 14.—Mr. Omar E. Jackson, wife of the late Winchester contractor, and Miss Clara Virginia Seabright, daughter of Chief of Police Stewart A. Seabright, were married to-day at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. E. E. Northern, of the Baptist Church. They are spending their honeymoon with Baltimore friends during home-coming week.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BOWLING GREEN, VA., October 14.—The Democratic County Committee met to-day and reorganized. C. B. Coyway was again elected chairman, and J. B. Washington secretary. A resolution was passed by the committee calling on all Democrats to support the nominees of the party. Mr. E. B. Collins has announced himself a candidate for sheriff, in opposition to Mr. T. B. Gill, the nominee.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] JACKSON—Sabbath. WINCHESTER, VA., October 14.—Mr. Omar E. Jackson, wife of the late Winchester contractor, and Miss Clara Virginia Seabright, daughter of Chief of Police Stewart A. Seabright, were married to-day at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. E. E. Northern, of the Baptist Church. They are spending their honeymoon with Baltimore friends during home-coming week.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BOWLING GREEN, VA., October 14.—The Democratic County Committee met to-day and reorganized. C. B. Coyway was again elected chairman, and J. B. Washington secretary. A resolution was passed by the committee calling on all Democrats to support the nominees of the party. Mr. E. B. Collins has announced himself a candidate for sheriff, in opposition to Mr. T. B. Gill, the nominee.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] JACKSON—Sabbath. WINCHESTER, VA., October 14.—Mr. Omar E. Jackson, wife of the late Winchester contractor, and Miss Clara Virginia Seabright, daughter of Chief of Police Stewart A. Seabright, were married to-day at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. E. E. Northern, of the Baptist Church. They are spending their honeymoon with Baltimore friends during home-coming week.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BOWLING GREEN, VA., October 14.—The Democratic County Committee met to-day and reorganized. C. B. Coyway was again elected chairman, and J. B. Washington secretary. A resolution was passed by the committee calling on all Democrats to support the nominees of the party. Mr. E. B. Collins has announced himself a candidate for sheriff, in opposition to Mr. T. B. Gill, the nominee.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] JACKSON—Sabbath. WINCHESTER, VA., October 14.—Mr. Omar E. Jackson, wife of the late Winchester contractor, and Miss Clara Virginia Seabright, daughter of Chief of Police Stewart A. Seabright, were married to-day at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. E. E. Northern, of the Baptist Church. They are spending their honeymoon with Baltimore friends during home-coming week.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BOWLING GREEN, VA., October 14.—The Democratic County Committee met to-day and reorganized. C. B. Coyway was again elected chairman, and J. B. Washington secretary. A resolution was passed by the committee calling on all Democrats to support the nominees of the party. Mr. E. B. Collins has announced himself a candidate for sheriff, in opposition to Mr. T. B. Gill, the nominee.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] JACKSON—Sabbath. WINCHESTER, VA., October 14.—Mr. Omar E. Jackson, wife of the late Winchester contractor, and Miss Clara Virginia Seabright, daughter of Chief of Police Stewart A. Seabright, were married to-day at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. E. E. Northern, of the Baptist Church. They are spending their honeymoon with Baltimore friends during home-coming week.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BOWLING GREEN, VA., October 14.—The Democratic County Committee met to-day and reorganized. C. B. Coyway was again elected chairman, and J. B. Washington secretary. A resolution was passed by the committee calling on all Democrats to support the nominees of the party. Mr. E. B. Collins has announced himself a candidate for sheriff, in opposition to Mr. T. B. Gill, the nominee.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] JACKSON—Sabbath. WINCHESTER, VA., October 14.—Mr. Omar E. Jackson, wife of the late Winchester contractor, and Miss Clara Virginia Seabright, daughter of Chief of Police Stewart A. Seabright, were married to-day at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. E. E. Northern, of the Baptist Church. They are spending their honeymoon with Baltimore friends during home-coming week.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BOWLING GREEN, VA., October 14.—The Democratic County Committee met to-day and reorganized. C. B. Coyway was again elected chairman, and J. B. Washington secretary. A resolution was passed by the committee calling on all Democrats to support the nominees of the party. Mr. E. B. Collins has announced himself a candidate for sheriff, in opposition to Mr. T. B. Gill, the nominee.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] JACKSON—Sabbath. WINCHESTER, VA., October 14.—Mr. Omar E. Jackson, wife of the late Winchester contractor, and Miss Clara Virginia Seabright, daughter of Chief of Police Stewart A. Seabright, were married to-day at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. E. E. Northern, of the Baptist Church. They are spending their honeymoon with Baltimore friends during home-coming week.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BOWLING GREEN, VA., October 14.—The Democratic County Committee met to-day and reorganized. C. B. Coyway was again elected chairman, and J. B. Washington secretary. A resolution was passed by the committee calling on all Democrats to support the nominees of the party. Mr. E. B. Collins has announced himself a candidate for sheriff, in opposition to Mr. T. B. Gill, the nominee.